Environmental Information Regulations 1 January 2016 to 31 March 2016

Executive Summary

This report is to provide Members with an overview of the Freedom of Information function and the number of Freedom of Information (FOI) requests that were received by Horsham District Council from 1 January to 31 March 2016.

For the period 1 January to 31 March 2016, the Council received 209 requests for information. The number of requests received was 11.5% higher (185) than the same period in 2015. Of these requests, where the identity of the requestor is known, 4 out of 10 (41%) requests have been received from businesses and the media.

Business process change continued to deliver the 20 day response outcome expected by the duty. By reshaping the way responses are processed, the council is now meeting the duty at the standard of the best councils. Between April and July 2015 the Council received 216 requests 83% of which were responded to within 20 working days. Subsequent quarters showed improvement to 98% and 99% as reported to Members. From 1 January to 31 March 2016, 95.7% of requests have been responded within 20 working days.

The year-end outturn as reported on page 34 of the agenda papers shows that faced with a 13% increase in the number of requests on the previous year the council had improved its processes to achieve an 8% increase in responses within 20 days within the same resources. The target set by the Information Commissioners Office that 85% of requests be responded to within 20 days was for the first time exceeded by the council by 7%.

Background Information

1 Introduction and Background

1.1 This report summarises the function of Freedom of Information at Horsham District Council from 1 January to 31 March 2016. The Council prepares this report quarterly.

1.2 Summary of the Freedom of Information Act:

The Act gives anyone the right to ask a public authority for information and if that authority holds it, to have that information released to them or to be told why they cannot have it.

The authority:

- Must reply within 20 working days either providing the information or saying why not, using only the stated exemptions within the Act
- Has a duty to provide advice and assistance to the applicant in making the request
- Cannot charge for providing the information other than photocopying, postage and other such disbursements, unless the time that would be required to produce the information would exceed the appropriate limit as defined within the Act – currently £450.00
- Must offer a requester the right to appeal a decision made by the authority prior to them taking a complaint to the Information Commissioner.
- Must adopt and publish a Publication Scheme as defined by the Information Commissioner.

1.3 Environmental Information Regulations

The Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIRs) give enhanced access to environmental information by giving anyone the right to access environmental information held by public authorities. A request can be made in writing, by telephone or in person.

Environmental Information is defined as any information in written, visual, aural, electronic or any other material form on:

- The state of the elements e.g. air, water, land, landscape, nature sites and biological diversity
- Factors affecting or likely to affect the elements such as substances, noise, emissions etc.
- Measure such as policies, plans, programmes, land planning regimes
- Reports on the implemental of environmental information
- State of human health and safety including contamination of the food chain, conditions of human life, cultural sites, built structures inasmuch as they are or may be affected by the state of the elements or by any of the factors, measure or activities.

In view of the above, a large part of the Council's functions is caught by the Environmental Information Regulations such as development control and enforcement, strategic planning, waste management and environmental health, rather than the Freedom of Information Act.

1.4 The key differences between the EIRs and FOIA are:

- Requests for environmental information do not have to be made in writing
- Information held by the Council includes information held on behalf of another person or organisation
- There are no absolute exceptions - every exception is subject to the public interest test
- There is an express presumption in favour of disclosure
- There is no cost limit on disclosure

2 Relevant Council policy

2.1 The Council has a duty to enable the provision of information to requestors within the parameters set by the Freedom of Information Act. The Council must also protect information collected by the Council in accordance with the Council's Privacy Policy. The statutory background is to be found in the Freedom of Information Act 2000, The Data Protection Act 1998 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

3 Details

3.1 Improvement

The number of requests received by the Council has increased when compared with the same period last year. The improvement trend in responding to requests is shown below.

- Between April and July 2015 the Council received 216 requests 83% of which were responded to within 20 working days;
- From 1 August to the end of September, there have been 124 requests, 98% of which were responded to within 20 working days.
- From 1 October to the end of December, there have been 161 requests, 99% of which were responded to within 20 working days.
- From 1 January to the end of March 2016, there have been 209 requests, 95.7% of which were responded to within 20 working days.

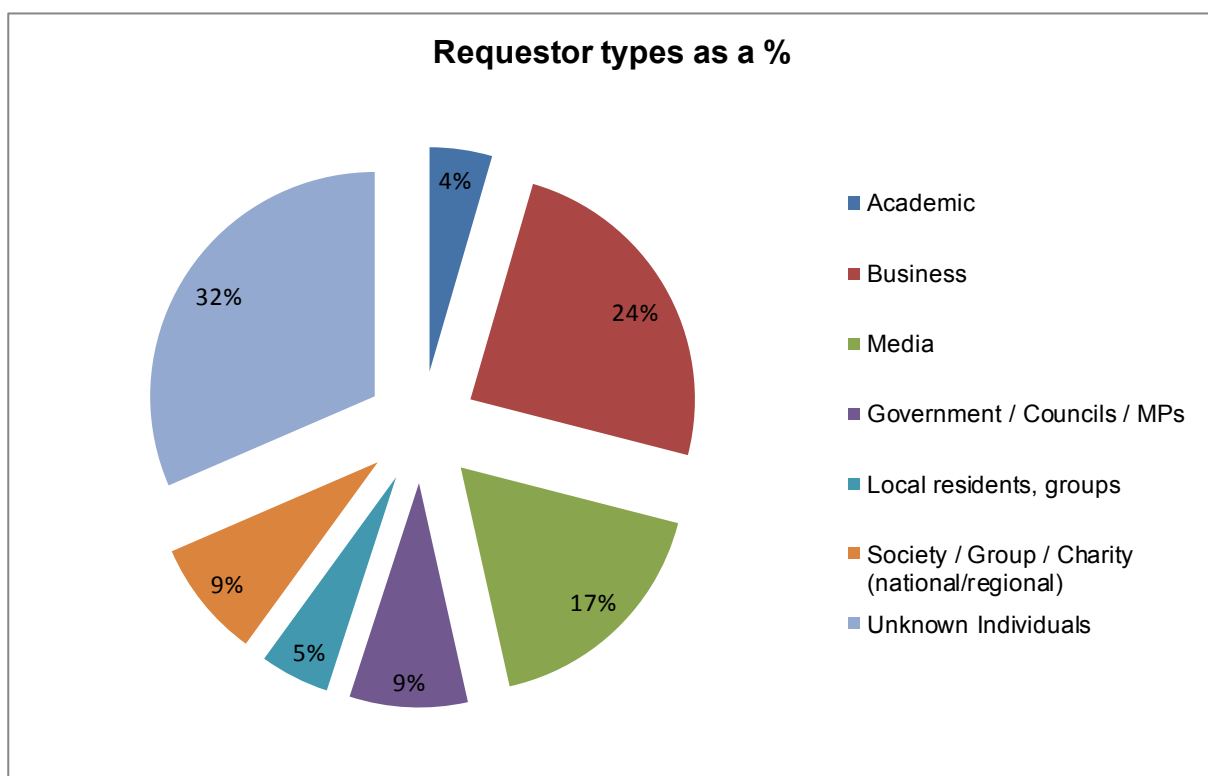

The improvement in response time is the result of changes to the business process to deliver the outcome expected by the duty. By reshaping the way responses are processed, the council will now meet the duty at the standard of the best councils.

3.2 Responding to requests

The Freedom of Information Act requires public authorities to reply to FOI requests within 20 working days. As such, the Council would have a target to respond to 100% of requests on time. However, pragmatically, the target set by the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) is 85% of requests being responded to in 20 days. The council is meeting the duty at the standard of the best councils.

3.3 Analysis of Requests between 1 January 2016 and 31 March 2016

Requestors are grouped for analysis purposes. This allows officers to understand the profile of requests and respond by amending the publication scheme according to demand. The Council's Publication Scheme has been updated in line with requirements of the Information Commissioner's Office, namely to adopt the model publication scheme.

3.4 Disclosure Log

Responses to requests are being published more consistently on the Council's website via the Disclosure Log. This has allowed some requesters to be referred directly to a published response, which saves officer time.

3.5 Online information – Channel Shift

The updated publication scheme on the FOI page of the Council's website will proactively assist with handling a number of routine requests. The direct links to business rates information, payments over £500 and to the contracts register have been added to the top of the page. A direct link to West Sussex County Council's page has also been added for those wanting to make enquiries relating to roads, education, social care or libraries. New requesters, not requiring any of the above, are directed towards an online form to make a request.

3.6 Internal Reviews

Requestors are able to ask the Council for an internal review if they are not content with the Council's initial decision on whether or not to release the information they have requested. This is facilitated by way of a well-established internal review process. The Codes of Practice issued under the FOI Act and EIRs state that internal review procedures should "encourage a prompt determination of the complaint". Reviews under the FOIA and the EIR should be completed within 20 working days. However, reviews under the EIRs often relate to complex and difficult issues and up to 40 days may be taken to complete.

From 1 April 2015 to 31 March 2016 the Council received 24 requests for internal review of decisions to withhold information. There were 8 more requests for review than in financial year 2014/15. Requestors that remain dissatisfied with the response of the council after the review may appeal to the Information Commissioners Office. The Information Commissioner may issue a decision notice on the council to instruct the council to address any matters. Decision notices are published on the ICO website and in 2015/16, just one decision notice was issued to Horsham District Council and that decision notice did not require the council to take any further action.

4 Next Steps

4.1 The Council will continue its business process improvement.

5 Outcome of Consultations

5.1 Feedback from Members on this Sub Committee or predecessor bodies has been sought quarterly. Responses to feedback have been embedded in business process improvements.

6 Other Courses of Action Considered but Rejected

7 Financial Consequences

7.1 The function has continued to meet growing demand within existing resources. There are no financial consequences to report.

8 Legal Consequences

8.1 The Council has continued to discharge the functions and duties of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, The Data Protection Act 1998 and the Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

9 Staffing Consequences

- 9.1 Staffing matters are the responsibility of the Head of Paid Service. There are no staffing consequences to report.

10 Risk Assessment

- 10.1 Risk CRR02 on the Council's Corporate Risk Register describes the Council's legal obligation to protect personal data. The Council's approach to Freedom of Information is part of the mitigation of Risk CRR02.
